Important For You To Know

Moving into residential aged care is a significant decision, and understanding the associated costs is important. Fees payable by a resident in an aged care facility are regulated by the Australian Government and may include, but are not limited to, Accommodation Payment, Non-Clinical Care Contribution, Hotelling Contribution, Means Tested Care Fee, Basic Daily Fee & Higher Everyday Living Fees. The Australian Government may provide you with financial support, but there are still some fees you may need to cover depending on your personal circumstances and the type of care you choose. You are encouraged to engage with Services Australia or the Department of Veterans' Affairs to complete your income and asset assessment, to determine how much you will need to contribute.
